CHAIN Technology Development

Wisdom is the co-founder and CTO of Chain Technology Development Company Limited. Over the years, he has been leading the team in pursuing the Digital Twin solutions especially for the AEC market. This solution can be widely adopted to various stages of a building lifecycle, ranges from design, construction, operation and asset management. The Digital Twin Solutions have been successfully implemented in some large scale infrastructure projects in Hong Kong to align with the government's adoption of DWSS and SSSS. With the solid experience in IoT, BIM and Smart City applications, Wisdom will share the ideas of digital transformation for the construction industry.
